

If you wish to be on the list for our Cuba trip, send us your name single or share or arranged share. Hotel rooms are scarce in Cuba!!!

2018	Check in	Check out
	Mar 18	Mar 20	Hotel Capri
	Mar 20	Mar 22	Hotel Ronda
	Mar 22	Mar 25	Hotel Capri

Cuba with The Women's Travel Group

A draft itinerary to be finalized shortly. Below is simply to give an idea of the trip; we are still designing some of the visits and eliminating others. We overnight in Miami; there are many hotels at different budgets; we will suggest a few. Visas and airfare from Miami to Havana are arranged as a group. Price coming shortly.

1 SATURDAY, MAR/ 18

Arrival Havana Panoramic tour to Revolution Square, Jose Marti's Memorial Building, National Library and Government Buildings, Ministerio de las Fuerzas Armadas, del Interior and Communications. Drive through Paseo street and tour Colon Cemetery Visit the Flower Store at Zapata and 14th streets to meet a women's cooperative. This is a Cuban legal institution working alongside the planned economy. We meet young women who found a way to earn a living.

Lunch at Mediterraneo Visit a dance and music children's company. This might be one of the most touching experiences we enjoy. Check in at hotel Welcome dinner at one of the first paladares in Cuba in a beautiful 19c palace, now a multi-family building. No visitor should missthe very place where Fresa y Chocolate, the most successful Cuban, film was shot.

2 SUNDAY, MAR 19

Walking tour through Habana Vieja*, beginning at Capitol Nacional then by Gran Teatro de la Habana and Parque Central to Prado Street. Turn left at Sevilla Hotel, enjoy the style of its façade and continue to Museo de la Revolución. Visit La Plazuela del Angel and the Church, then El Callejón de los Artistas and see their community project. We visit local artists and see their hand made paper, or The striking Wilfredo Lam Center of Contemporary Art.

Lunch at a private restaurant. Depart in classic American cars through Malecón street. Dinner at El Litoral.

3 MONDAY, MAR 20

Depart for Trinidad, the colonial jewel with much original charm. Lunch at a restaurant. Brief walking tour. Visit Romantic Museum for the magic interiors of a Trinitarian house. Hotel check in Meet with women from Federación de Mujeres Cubanas to discuss about their experiences about being Cuban women in today's Cuba. We are including some of these meetings not all, to be finalized shortly. Free night for dinner and musical experiences to be arranged there.

4 TUESDAY, MAR 21

Depart for Topes de Collates and tour Reloj de Sol Visit Kurhotel Escambray, meet the staff to learn about anti-stress and rehab in the institution. Visit Villa Caburni and discover Cuban nature in the Jardín de los Gigantes, an arboretum with giant trees planted to create oxygen to improve the recovery of patients. Lunch in a restaurant. Visit Casa del Café for a guided tour and interactive lecture and a drink of unique coffee. Visit Museum de Arte Contemporáneo, a hidden treasure in the mountains If you feel ready to an excursion in Russian trucks into the mountains, visit Granja del Colora'o, a local farm. Return to Trinidad
Free night dinner at leisure

5 WEDNESDAY, MAR 22

Depart to Cienfuegos Tour Cienfuegos Prado and Punta Gorda: Jagua's Garden, Casa Verde, Palacio de Valle and Club Cienfuegos. Compare the colonial Trinidad with the French eclectic style of Cienfuegos. Visit an art Schools and enjoy a music performance by children. Lunch at a local restaurant. Continue to Havana Enjoy dinner at leisure

6 THURSDAY, MAR 23

Depart to Jaimanitas through 5th avenue, considered the most beautiful in Cuba. This is the main avenue of Miramar neighborhood, where wealthy families lived before 1959. Here are the most luxurious Yacht, Social and Beach Clubs. Lunch at La Fontana while enjoying a performance by Havana Compás Dance, headed by dancer and choreographer Liliet Rivera. Return to the hotel; dinner at leisure
Suggestion: Visit La Zorra y el Cuervo, the most emblematic Cuban Jazz Club

7 FRIDAY, MAR 24

Depart to Viñales in Pinar del Rio
Meet the city historian of Viñales. Visit a Cigar facility know in Cuba as "despalillo", see the process of making the best cigar worldwide. Lunch at a local farm with farmers from the valley. Continue walking through the valley and tobacco plantations to enjoy this World Heritage Site. Visit Cueva del Indio, where the mountains and the valley make a heaven-sent Cuban landscape. *Return to Havana Farewell dinner in a private restaurant

8 SATURDAY, MAR 25

Transfer out to the International Airport Jose Marti Check in at your flight X

