The Women's Travel Group Presents:
WONDERS OF SARDINIA & ROME

Travel Dates: October 1 – 7, 2018
8 days, 6 nights accommodation, sightseeing, some meals

Sardinia is the second-largest island in the Mediterranean, characterized by a jagged and rocky coastline, interspersed with stunning beaches of very fine sand. The past fifty years have seen Sardinia become a hotspot for tourism, with La Costa Smeralda in the northern area becoming a favorite retreat of Italian celebrities. The Sardinian coast may be dedicated to tourism, but the interior belongs to native Sardinians who still hold onto their customs, food and unique language, a form of classical Latin that is considered an official language.

Day 1 – Sunday Sep 30th – Depart the USA for Italy your overnight flight to Italy, (Sardinia). International flights are not included. In the past some women stayed overnight the pre tour night at the Rome airport Hilton connected to the terminal. This works well if your flights do not connect well.

Day 2 – Monday Oct 1st – Sardinia - Alghero: Arrive at Alghero airport. Upon arrival, proceed to the baggage claim and after clearing customs you will be met by our local tour manager who will escort you throughout this exciting trip. Transfer to your Hotel located in the pretty little town of Alghero

Group transfer for flight arriving at 11:00 a.m. Time to unpack and relax before a nice walk to discover Alghero. Although part of the kingdom of Italy for many generations, this lovely old town still retains an air of the Spanish region of Catalonia since it once formed part of the kingdom of Aragon. The local residents still speak a Spanish dialect. Many of the older buildings are in a Catalan Gothic style reminiscent of Barcelona. See sights including the harbor, and the Cathedral Santa Maria and Piazza Ginasio in the heart of the old town. Enjoy a fantastic sunset from the Catalan walls facing the blue sea. Enjoy welcome dinner at a local Osteria, we will taste the traditional “Paella Algherese”. Overnight in Alghero (Dinner)

Day 3 – Tuesday Oct 2 – Sardinia – Alghero area: After breakfast at the Hotel, we depart to discover this area of natural beauty. After a scenic drive, we reach Capo Caccia a beautiful lookout point featuring a great open view of the Mediterranean Sea. Home to an extraordinary nature reserve frequented by large birds of prey, Capo Caccia is also renowned for a labyrinth of caves including 2500m-long Grotta di Nettuno. Proceed to visit the archeological site Nuraghe Palmavera. During a walking tour of the premises, your guide will explain the history and significance of these remarkable remains dating from the civilization that existed here about 1300-1200 B.C. The main tower is an excellent example of Sardinia's earliest inhabitants, who remain a prehistoric enigma. Ancient writers called them the 'Nuraghic' people, named after their stone dwellings, the 'Nuraghi'. These structures are unique to Sardinia; just as the Aztec pyramids are to Mexico. After the visit, proceed to sample a very traditional lunch at a local farmhouse. The traditional cuisine of Sardinia was in some ways a contradiction: an island civilization that did not utilize seafood in its diet. Since Sardinia's coast has always been victim to invasion, the Sardinian people found refuge in the mountains. Therefore, the traditional foods of Sardinia were always more influenced by the land than by the sea. Evening at leisure. (Breakfast, Lunch)

Day 4 – Wednesday Oct 3 – Sardinia Castelsardo – Tempio Pausania: After breakfast, we depart to discover Castelsardo. Today, we visit the 13th century Aragonese stronghold of Castelsardo where steep, winding streets lead up to the defensive towers and where old women sit in doorways weaving elaborate baskets. The lovely Castelsardo ancient fortress of the Genoese family is a famous handcraft center (carpets, rugs, baskets, ceramic and corals). Enjoy lunch at typical farmhouse to experience additional dishes of this genuine cuisine including desserts specialties. Continue to Tempio Pausania. Amongst wild scrub and spectacular cork forests, Tempio Pausania is a small village with a history that can be traced back to the 16th century BC. Once a prosperous town, its Byzantine granite Cathedral is set against harsh, austere ground level dwellings and small stone buildings. (Breakfast, Lunch)

Day 5 – Thursday Oct 4 – Sardinia – Bosa – Nuraghi Valley - Olenia: After breakfast, travel to the Carthaginian town of Bosa, situated on the River Temo and dominated by the ruins of the Castle Serravalle. Bosa lies some 40 kms south of Alghero and can be reached by a stunning, winding road that runs right along the coast past unforgettable seascapes and landscapes where the views are absolutely stunning. The town is set in a beautiful, wild and unspoiled valley alongside a tranquil, palm-lined river. It is one of the prettiest towns in all of Sardinia. Bosa is home to the original shawl makers who work at home on their dexterous embroidery. Time for lunch on own in old town. In the afternoon we drive in the Nuraghi Valley, where the region is rich in pre-historical and historical monuments, mainly dating from the bronze and medieval ages. The itinerary passes through typical Sardinian landscapes, hills and plateaux formed by volcanic activity where the agriculture is still the main occupation. We visit the archeological site of Tamuli, particularly interesting because of the six menhirs, three interpreted as having female breasts symbolizing fertility. There are also the remains of three major vestiges: The Tombe di Giganti, the large Nuraghe and a number of huts, probably built as sheds for the shepherds. We reach our Hotel located in Olenia located in a beautiful natural setting within the mountainous Supramonte district; a rural resort built for a true Sardinian experience, the hotel offers a really different style of holiday, surrounded by local art and traditions, pristine nature parks and a dramatic mountain scenery. After check in at Hotel, enjoy dinner at the hotel restaurant. The property is renowned for its restaurant, which serves simple, authentic Sardinian dishes. (Breakfast, Dinner)

Day 6 – Friday Oct 5 – Sardinia –Barbagia, Nuoro, Orgosolo – Your final full day in Sardinia begins with a delicious breakfast at the hotel, setting you up perfectly for a day where the focus will be based on the traditions of Sardinian life. We travel through the Barbagia area, considered the heart of Sardinia's ancient traditions which have survived alongside modern life, and for which you can recognize in the landscape, the architecture and the cuisine of this area. You will travel to the town of Nuoro where a visit to the Museum of Sardinian Life and Folk Traditions is included. The museum is home to a fascinating and rich collection of exhibits chronicling life on the island, mainly between the late 1800s to the mid-1900s. Lunch today features a unique experience, as you will feast on roast suckling pig, lamb and traditional Sardinian cheeses el fresco and in the company of a local shepherd. Your lunch is followed by a visit to the village of Orgosolo, which is known, for its elaborate murals that document the social discontent in the region in the latter half of the 20th Century. Orgosolo is also popular for its ancient tradition of baking bread known, as “Pane Carasau” and we will visit a bakery to try some of the bread. Early in the evening, you will return to your hotel, where you will have time to relax before your farewell dinner, which will take place at the hotel's unique venue, the Bread Nest. Before you dine, there will be a demonstration of bread making by ladies in traditional Oliena dress. You will be able to sample typical Sardinian breads as you dine on a set menu of local dishes and reflect on your journey around this beautiful Mediterranean island. (Breakfast, Lunch Dinner)

Day 7 – Saturday Oct 6 – Sardinia – Rome: After breakfast transfer to the airport for your flight to Rome. Upon arrival at Rome airport enjoy a panoramic tour by bus for a first introduction to the eternal city. Transfer to your centrally located Hotel and check in. Spend the afternoon at leisure for your personal discovery of the town.
