This afternoon tour the center of Oaxaca, one of the most beautiful colonial towns in Mexico. Situated in the Valle Central, Oaxaca is at 4,900 ft., annual temperature 70F. Stroll old cobbled streets, visit the magnificent church Santo Domingo de Guzmán + bustling Zócalo – one of many markets. Dinner is at El Amador Vasco. All dinners are a la carte with starter, main course, dessert, water, glass of wine. This is among the best restaurants in Oaxaca with views of the lively Zócalo, outside or in the dining room. Highly recommended is Tortilla Soup and steak broiled over charcoal. We stay at the 4 1/2 star Holiday Inn Express Centro Historic Oaxaca, Dinner

August 2 Oaxaca to Monte Alban and Arrazola Painted Animals

We visit Zapotecs and Mixtecs at Monte Albán. The magnificently situated ruins are surrounded by terraces, temples and tombs. At its heyday (500-800 AD), the center had 50,000 residents. Next is San Antonio Arrazola (Journey 30 Min.) the village internationally known for imaginative wood carvings. Dinner tonight is at Casa Oaxaca at Jardín del Pañuelito with known Chef Alejandro Ruiz. Enjoy a spectacular view of Santo Domingo Church while savoring spicy Mezcal or wine. Experience the flavors and aromas of Oaxaca. Breakfast and Dinner

August 3 Free Day

The day is free. Oaxaca is a walking city full of shops, including a famous Artisans' Market. Oaxaca has many other markets and a wonderful museum formerly a monastery. On our trips, we meet for dinner when not included. Breakfast

August 4 Origen Food and Marketing/ Teotitlán del Valle Weavers

With welcome cocktails and mountain coffee, we meet our chef in the restaurant Origen. Continue to the central market for fresh ingredients and the hustle and bustle. Return to the kitchen to learn about Mexican cuisine and prepare a multi-course menu, while sipping local drinks.

Oaxaca - Teotitlán del Valle (Journey 40 Min.)

When we enter Teotitlán del Valle, we see freshly dyed wool, drying in the sun waiting for processing. Dyes are produced from natural substances. The village specializes in manufacture of carpets. Every family, mostly of Zapotec origin, has its own style + master weavers. Teotitlán del Valle - Oaxaca Breakfast and Lunch

August 5 Tule, Herve el Agua Mitla

Oaxaca - Tule (Journey / 13.0 km / 20 Min.)

Between Oaxaca and Mitla lies the peaceful village Santa María del Tule. Next to the small church, we visit the enormous ahuehuete tree, more than 36.2 m [119 ft.] round from its 2,000 years' lifetime. Tule - Herve el Agua (Journey 83 Min.) Excursion into the mountains. From Xaaga follow forest trails of the Sierra Madre to the springs and terraces of Herve el Agua. The hot springs form natural pools where you can relax after our walk. You may stay behind, and rejoin the group afterwards. The hike is an inclined 1500 ft. We are told the scenery is lovely even at the base.

Herve el Agua - Mitla (Journey 35 Min.) Visit the archaeological site of Mitla. The importance of this "place of the dead" is unclear. The buildings were probably built by the Zapotec. The group of the columns is considered a highlight of pre-Columbian architecture. Mitla was the seat of the "Great Seer", religious center of the Zapotec. Today the area has small picturesque markets for weavings etc. Mitla - Oaxaca (Journey 70 Min.) Dinner is at "Catedral", with its magnificent facade.
