Dec 24 - Monday Rio de Janeiro - City Tour / Corcovado

Your morning tour features a ride by cable car to the summit of Sugar Loaf Mountain. Take in spectacular views of the city from Corcovado to Guanabara Bay and Niteroi Bridge.

Later, drive along the Leblon and famous Ipanema beaches before stopping for lunch at a local restaurant. Following lunch, visit Corcovado, upon which stands the statue of Christ the Redeemer. En route, see Rodrigo de Freitas Lagoon and the traditional Cosme Velho neighborhood. Take a cogwheel train to the famous statue and enjoy the stunning vista before descending. (BL)

Dec 25 - Tuesday Rio de Janeiro

Half day Jeep tour to Santa Teresa & Tijuca Forest. Located in the "heart of town" the Tijuca National Park is known as the largest urban forest on earth. The city of Rio de Janeiro surrounds its huge mountains covered with tropical vegetation and dramatic granite rocks, forming a unique background for the beaches and city of Rio. In this tour we visit the Park's best viewpoints, attractions and hike up Tijuca Peak (Rio's highest point at 3300 ft). The charming district of Santa Teresa takes you back in time with its cobblestone hilly streets, old constructions from the 19th century; interesting museums and Rio's last surviving tram line. Dinner at Churrascaria Palace (a 5-minute walk from your hotel with your guide's assistance).

The Palace is renowned for its traditional Rio style, founded in the Golden Years along with the Bossa Nova! (BD)

Dec 26 - Wednesday Rio de Janeiro

The mountain retreat of Petropolis has been called the Imperial City since the times of Emperor Pedro II. Visit the Imperial Museum, which was the summer residence of Emperor D. Pedro II, and is where all of his treasures are displayed. Continue to the Gothic Cathedral where Princess Isabel was buried.
