Set within the beautiful Mediterranean Sea, the islands of Malta and Sicily share an interesting and important history: Evidence of "man" exists as far back as 8,000 BC on Sicily and 5,200 BC in Malta. The Greek temples in Sicily are better preserved than those in Greece, and the temples in Gozo, Malta, are considered the oldest freestanding monuments in the world - pre-dating the Great Pyramid of Cheops in Egypt by 1,000 years! Wherever you go, the Islands' scenery, the striking contrasts, honey-colored stones against the deepest of Mediterranean blues and architecture provide a spectacular backdrop.

Sicily and Malta have been described as one big open-air museum. What makes them unique is that so much of their past is still visible today. Delve into the Islands' mysterious prehistory, retrace the footsteps of St. Paul or see where the Knights of St. John defended Christendom. We are looking to host you in Sicily and Malta.
