April 17 - 29, 2020

Morocco combines truly exotic sights, customs and people. An optional pre - tour to the 'Blue City' of Chefchaouen is offered. Our trip touches ancient crossroads from the Roman North to the Berber Atlas Mountains and ends in the thrilling desert oasis of Marrakech . We travel in April, when the weather is ideal and there is still snow on the mountains. Some nights are spent in authentic Riads: Classic Moroccan homes built around a courtyard and fountain. Special experiences include an optional night in a luxurious Berber tent in the desert. Join us for an African adventure with markets, minarets, and muezzins.

Day 1: Friday, April 17 - Arrive Casablanca / Rabat

Arrive at Casablanca Airport. You'll be met and transferred to Rabat. This evening meet your guide for a tour briefing and enjoy a welcome dinner at the hotel. Le Diwan by M Gallery or similar (D)

Day 2: Saturday, April 18 Rabat

Morning panoramic city tour of Rabat. Sightseeing of the "Imperial Garden City" begins with the Kasbah of Oudayas, Hassan Tower and walls of the Mechour surrounding the Royal Palace. (B)

Day 4: Monday April 20 Fes

Full day exploratory journey of Fes: the oldest cultural and spiritual Imperial City in Morocco. Begin with the Medina where you visit the many hidden treasures that only the inhabitants know about. Fes served as the capital of Morocco for more than 350 years and is home to the University of Al Karaouine, the oldest operating university in the world. Your guided tour will take you to the Nejjarine Fountains and the famous Tanneries. Visit countless Souks, including food/spice souks and a communal bakery. Enjoy a short visit to the famous ceramic factory, and then take in wonderful panoramic views over the whole city. In the afternoon, visit the new city and its art galleries. Overnight (B)

Day 5 Tuesday, April 21 - Fes

Free day or Optional tour: Volubilis/ Meknes Discover Volubilis, the amazing roman archaeological site excavated in the early 20th century revealing the Roman Empire's most remote city. Here we will admire the beautiful, well-preserved mosaics, as well as different Roman monuments such as the capitol and triumphal arch. Meknes is one of the Imperial Cities as it was built and became prosperous in the 17th century under the rule of a powerful sultan. Moulay Ismail with tireless passion and an indomitable will, undertook to make this Meknes a capital with its palaces, mosques, fountains, terraces, gardens, stables, and shops.
