The Women's Travel Group Presents: TREASURES OF SICILY & MALTA

Travel Dates: March 20 to March 29, 2021

11 days, 9 nights accommodation, sightseeing, some meals

Set within the beautiful Mediterranean Sea, the islands of Malta and Sicily share an interesting and important history: Evidence of "man" exists as far back as 8,000 BC on Sicily and 5,200 BC in Malta. The Greek temples in Sicily are better preserved than those in Greece, and the temples in Gozo, Malta, are considered the oldest freestanding monuments in the world - pre-dating the Great Pyramid of Cheops in Egypt by 1,000 years! Wherever you go, the Islands' scenery, the striking contrasts, honey-colored stones against the deepest of Mediterranean blues and architecture provide a spectacular backdrop.

Sicily and Malta have been described as one big open-air museum. What makes them unique is that so much of their past is still visible today. Delve into the Islands' mysterious prehistory, retrace the footsteps of St. Paul or see where the Knights of St. John defended Christendom. We are looking to host you in Sicily and Malta.

Ways to Obtain Flights for our Sicily and Malta trip

If you wish a stopover to regroup, fly to Rome, stay at the Rome Airport Hilton. The hotel is connected to the terminal so you do not leave the airport. The Hilton is a good place to meet others at dinner who might do the same thing- you will get a list. The hotel has a FREE shuttle into Central Rome. From Rome we can book you separately into to Catania and out of Valletta.

More options especially if you are using FF miles across The Atlantic:

1. Purchase a Hometown-Rome ticket one way with another airport-Hometown returning. For instance, connecting in London/Paris/Munich/Frankfurt on the way home. It might be cheaper. Visit www.kayak.com for this kind of option.
2. A second option: Fly to Rome, return from London Heathrow. Purchase only a Rome-Catania and Malta-London ticket. Expedia, Opodo.co.uk, Kayak, and many others will offer this option.
